

If I miss my bus I could ...

- Check the bus timetable
- Wait for the next bus if I know it won't be too long
- Walk (if it's not too far and I know the way)
- Phone the place I am going to so they know I will be late
- Phone my emergency contact

If my bus doesn't arrive I could..

- Check the bus timetable - is another one due soon?
- Walk (if it's not too far and I know the way)
- Phone the place I am going to so they know I will be late
- Phone my emergency contact

If I get off at the wrong stop I could ...

- Walk (if it's not too far and I know the way)
- Phone my emergency contact

If I lose my money I could ...

- Check again - is it really lost?
- Ask a friend if they can lend me the bus fare
- Walk back home to get some money for the bus
- Phone my emergency contact

How to get off the bus

- Press the bell once when I want to get off
- Pick up my bags ready to get off
- Stand near the front of the bus and wait for it to stop
- When the doors open I can get off

How to catch a bus

- The first person to get to the bus stop stands at the front
- I should stand behind people already at the bus stop
- Some people at the stop might not want my bus, I can ask them.
- Put my arm out to show I want the bus to stop when I can see that it is the right bus
- Let the people in front of me in the queue get on first

Useful things to have for the journey

- Money
- Phone
- Keys
- Bus timetable
- Emergency number in my phone
- A street map

